

Discussion: Tensions in Social Values of Culture

Interactive session led by:

Victoria D. Alexander and Oliver Peterson Gilbert

Goldsmiths, University of London

UNCHARTED Symposium

12 January 2023

Discussion Rules

Everyone is assigned a group, 1-4.

- Room divided into quadrants

Each group is assigned a 'provocation'

- Shown momentarily

All groups discuss among themselves for 10 minutes

- Please consider whether you agree or disagree with the provocation and why
- Nominate one person to spark the discussion in the next part
- This person will make a short summary of points discussed

Each provocation is addressed publicly for 10 minutes only

- Starting with Provocation 1, then moving in numerical order
- Please be brief when you comment

The Provocations

1. Value tensions cannot be managed or mitigated.
2. Value tensions are useful or productive.
3. There are different kinds of value tensions and these must be distinguished; not all value tensions are alike.
4. Cultural policy should aim to resolve value tensions in society.
